CLASS HISTORY

The Class of 1953 started high school as a group of sixty-six students. At our first meeting we elected the following officers; President, Pat Arthur; Vice President, Virginia Davis; Treasurer, Beulah Porter; and Secretary, Jack Gallant. In order to earn money for our trip to New York during our Senior Year, we raffled off an Easter Corsage and held a food sale under the direction of Mrs. MacAllister, our class advisor. We also held a supper in honor of our parents and teachers.

Then entering our Sophomore year we elected Pat Arthur, President; Virginia Davis, Vice President; Beulah Porter, Treasurer; and Anne Ormsbee, Secretary. Miss Simpkins became our class advisor and we began striving harder for our trip to New York. We held the traditional Twirp Dance and again played host to our parents and teachers at a supper. We also sold Jello.

As officers for our Junior year we chose Pat Arthur, President; Don Wehmeyer, Vice President; Beulah Porter, Treasurer; and Margaret McCarthy, Secretary. This was our best year yet. We proudly received our long awaited Class rings and held our Junior Prom, with a background of a Chinese Garden as the theme. Anne Tompkins was chosen as our Queen. We also sponsored a Valentine Dance, sold candy and Jello, held our Junior Supper, and presented three plays, "Coming Around the Mountain," "A Wedding" and "Of All Things."

We have finally reached the high point of our high school career, our Senior year. During the past three years, we have lost many of our fellow classmates, until only twenty-nine Seniors are left. Don Wehmeyer, President; Joe Dreimiller, Vice President; Beulah Porter, Treasurer; and Anne Ormsbee, Secretary were elected as class officers. Our activities reached their peak this year. Everyone was busy selling candy, Christmas cards, stationery, matches, wreathes, and any other items with which we could make money for our Senior Trip. Our Social events were the Senior Tea held at Mrs. Burroughs' home, the Senior Dance, and the Senior supper. We also presented a play, "Beauty and the Beef." We worked hard toward the publishing of our 1953 yearbook and also looked forward to our trip to New York with anxiety. We hope that our future will be as bright as our past has been.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank Miss Simpkins, Mr. Burroughs, Mr. Nash, all our teachers, and all others who have helped us throughout our school year.

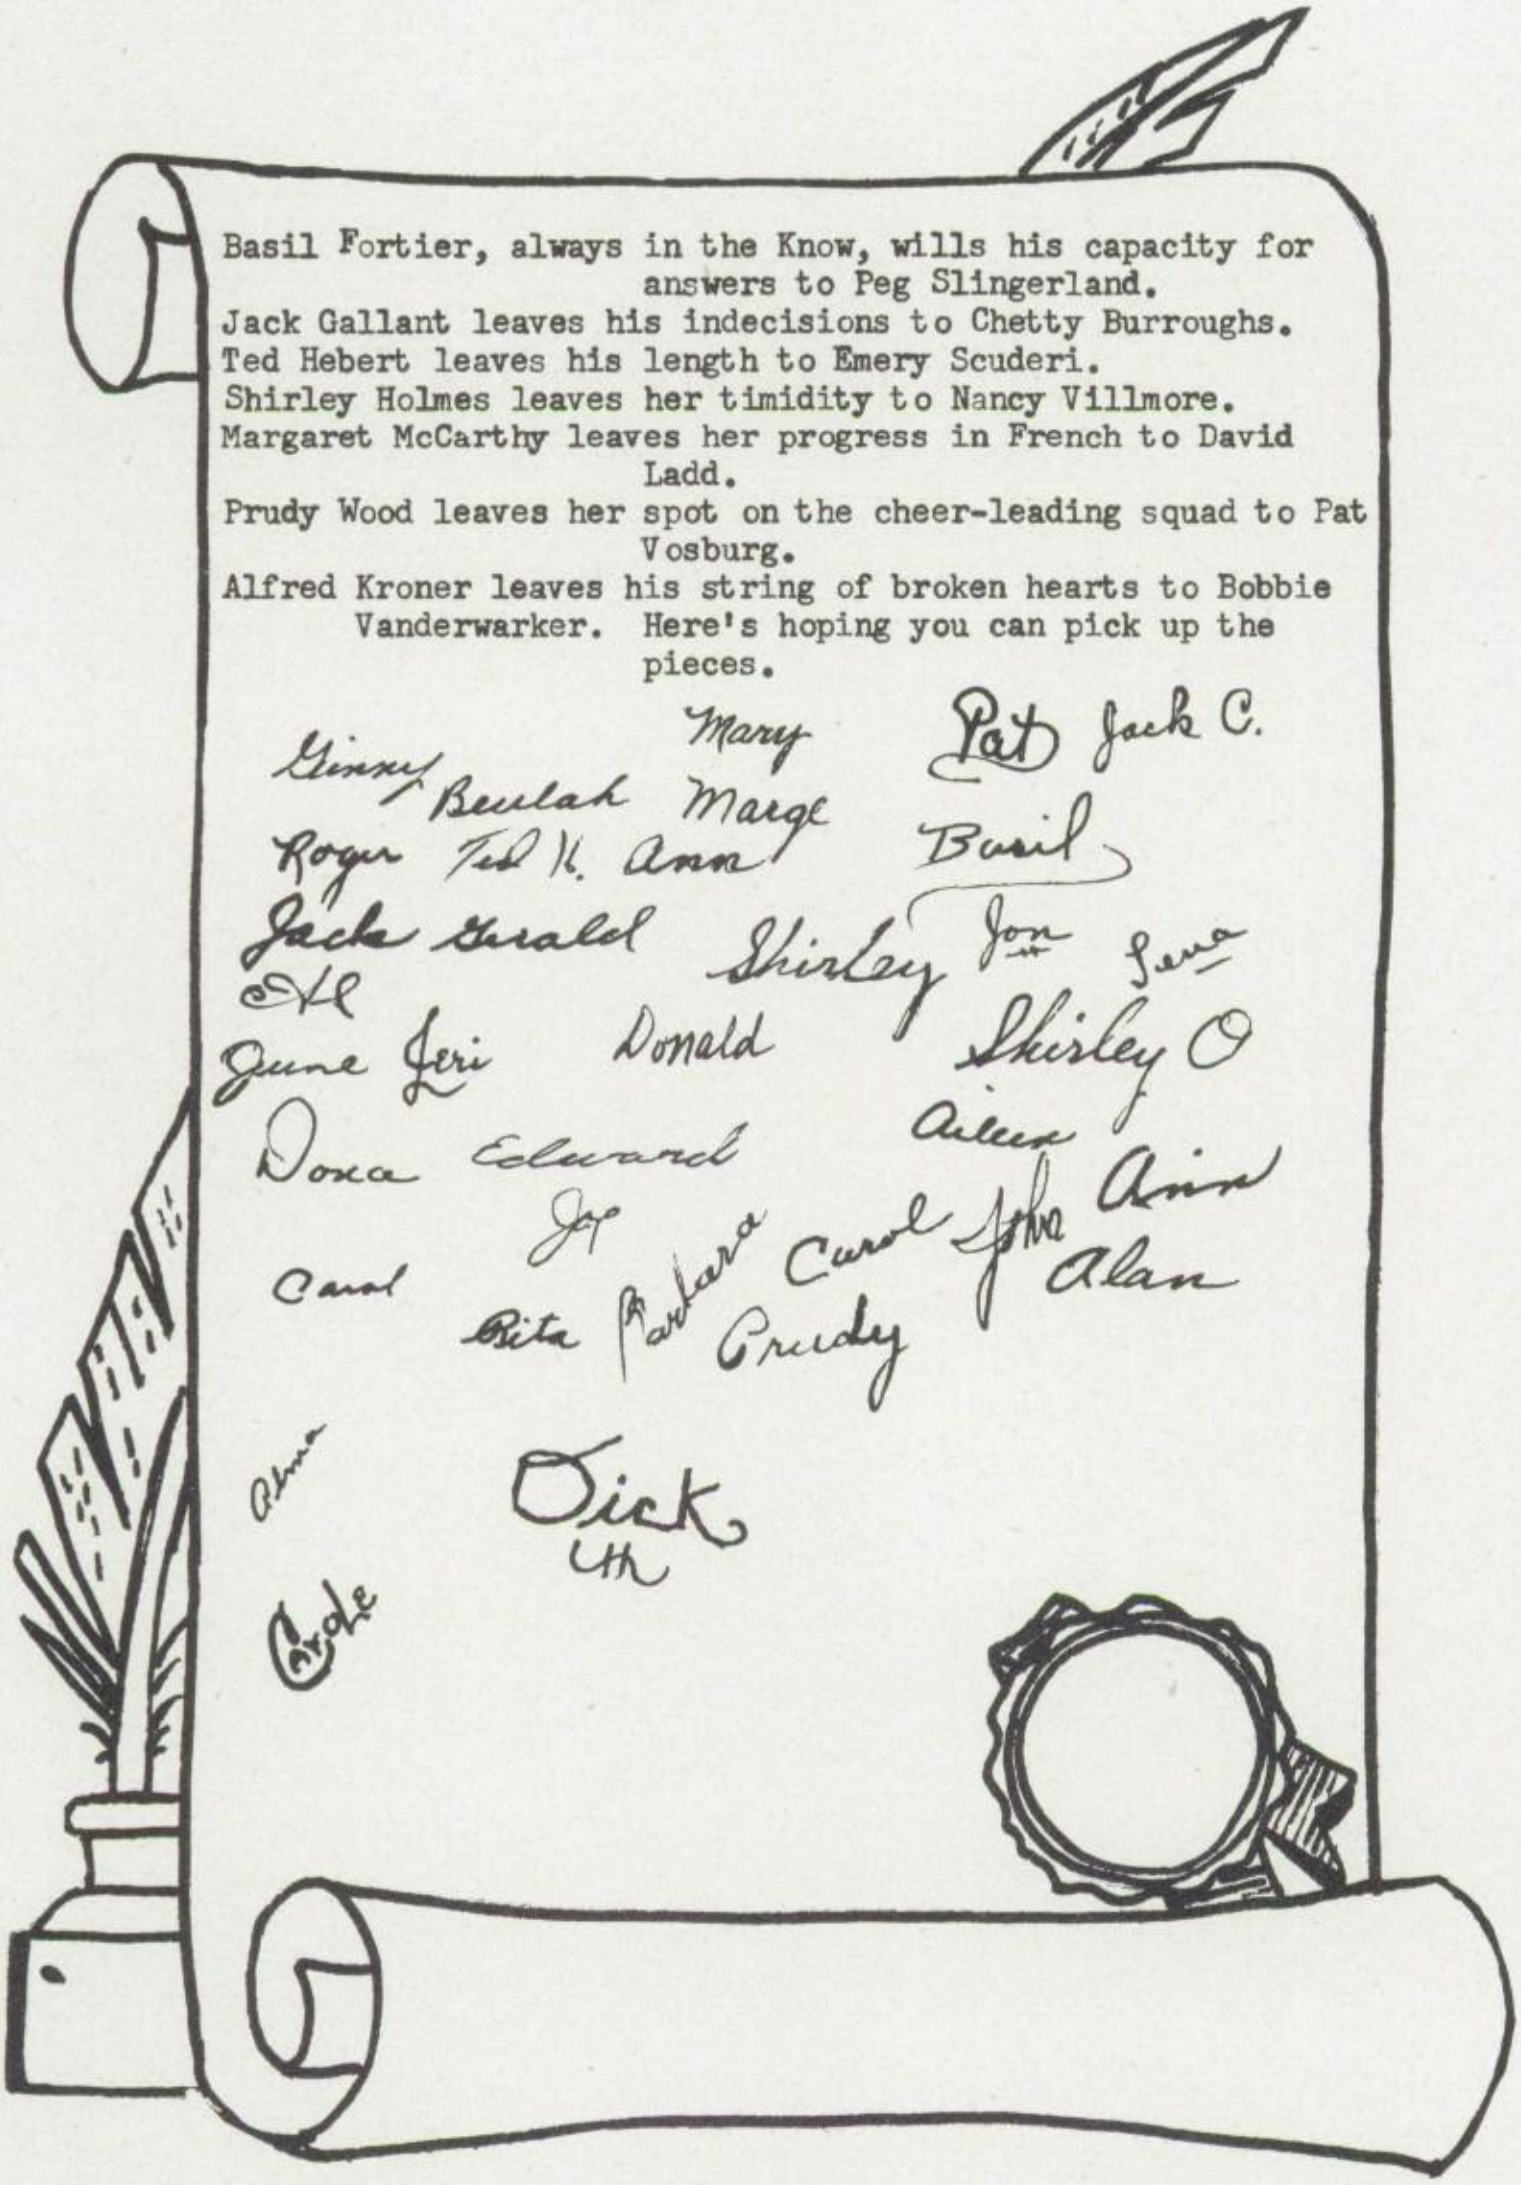
Carol Maheu leaves Jimmy to struggle along without her.
Lois Moody leaves the blackboards alone!!!!!
Dona Newton leaves her brains to chemistry class.
Shirley O'Neil leaves History to Mr. Burroughs.
Anne Ormsbee leaves her "ambiguous wit" to John Peterson.
Alma Thompson leaves her blond tresses to Mary Lou Ives.

Basil Fortier, always in the Know, wills his capacity for answers to Peg Slingerland.
Jack Gallant leaves his indecisions to Chetty Burroughs.
Ted Hebert leaves his length to Emery Scuderi.
Shirley Holmes leaves her timidity to Nancy Villmore.
Margaret McCarthy leaves her progress in French to David Ladd.
Prudy Wood leaves her spot on the cheer-leading squad to Pat Vosburg.
Alfred Kroner leaves his string of broken hearts to Bobbie Vanderwarker. Here's hoping you can pick up the pieces.



CLASS PROPHECY

As we look into our Crystal Ball,
We close our eyes and then recall
As each of the classmen of '53
Steps out, we'll tell you what we see.

The first which comes before our eyes
Is Pat Arthur in disquise.
He's now a clown for Gerald Ryan's Ring
Of which Ted Hebert is "The Thing."

Admiral Ed Wiley, serving in France,
For advancement, we see, he has a good chance.
And Dick Trudeau has become, in short,
A sailor with a girl in every port.

Dona Newton's sailed, Ahoy!
Away to nurse a sailor-boy.
While Jack waits at Uncas Inn,
At 40, says he, "A man can't win!"

Jon Potter and Lena Brown
Now are traveling, the world around.
And Alan White, we wonder why,
Has become the head of the F.B.I.

Shirley Holmes is wed, we hear
To the guy she like in her Senior year.
While Carol Cummings is way out West
Riding the horse, she likes the best.

Oh, now we see a football game
With Joe as coach of Notre Dame.
And there's a Wave dressed in blue,
It's Aileen Barber, we think, don't you?

Rita Bigelow with a mile of males behind,
Still plays the field most of the time.
And Beulah Porter has given up dates,
To run for President of the United States.

Now we see a History Prof,
Who never smiles, is cross and gruff.
He should've been the towncrier,
It's none other than Don Wehmeyer.

While Marge McCarthy's an interpreter in Spain,
Mary's a stewardess on the President's plane.
And Lois Moody's a teacher of Phys. Ed.
How can it happen she isn't wed?

Our Chrystal Ball is half way round
We see a queen being crowned.
It's Ann Tompkins from dear old Ti,
She's Miss America, riding high!

Jack Gallant leads an all-girl chorus,
While Al Kroner acts on T.V. for us.
And Barbara Schryer, his bride-to-be,
Waits for his fortune patiently.

Roger Allen is loaded with gold;
He's an actor, charming and bold.
He thrills the girls upon the stage,
For 20 years, he's been the rage.

While Basil Fortier builds bridges high,
Carole Randall, his wife, nurses nearby.
Anne Ormsbee's a waitress in a N. Y. Cafe.
You'll see Ginny Davis in the movies any day.

Who's that gal in the bathing suit?
It's Carol Maheu, dark and cute.
She's a bathing beauty in Hollywood,
Doing fine, as we knew she would.

Donald Barber is now in Brazil
Hunting the lions, he hopes to kill.
A famous artist accompanies him;
It's Gerry Scuderi, painting again.

June Sanders waits on customers fine
Selling the best of every line.
An efficient secretary is Alma Thompson
Margaret Smith models for a firm in Boston.

Oh! What do we see now?
Shirley O'Neil leading a cow.
She and Johnny settled down,
On a farm, just outside o f town.

Larry Willy and Prudy Wood,
We see, have done the best they could.
With 6 kids and the middle-age spread
Not a hair remains on Larry's head.

Goodnight Irene

FOOTBALL

This year the Ticonderoga Sentinel Eleven posted one of its best seasons in several years. They won five, while losing two. Another game was forfeited to us.

The Sentinels traveled to Whitehall for the opener. The powerful Maroon Eleven swamped the Sentinels 33-7 with its crushing type of play. This game proved that Ti had to be more aggressive and alert. A surprise package in Bob Vanderwarker's passing arm was uncovered.

At Plattsburg the next week, the Sentinels fought their hearts out against a heavier Plattsburg team, but lost a close one 14-7. Later Plattsburg forfeited this game to us because of an ineligible player on their team.

The Sentinels got spark form the Plattsburg game to rout Port Henry in its opening home game 32-19. The game was highlighted by the passing and running of Young and the pass-catching of Dreimiller. The next week Ti out-maneuvered a huge Northwood prep team for a 19-7 victory.

At Lake Placid the two football teams were fighting for the title. In a hard fought game, featured by the running of Bud Denno, the Sentinels were beaten 7-0.

Ticonderoga walloped M. A. I. of Plattsburg 26-7 and clinched second place by crushing St. Johns in the dust of their own field 26-7.

Playing their last game at home against a spirited Mineville club, the Sentinels overcame a Mineville lead to score a 28-13 triumph.

BASKETBALL

The Ticonderoga High School Sentinels completed the first half of their 1952-53 basketball schedule and sport a four win and four loss record.

In the opening game at home the Sentinels triumphed over Crown Point 67-61. Mineville made a successful invasion of Ti by trouncing the Sentinels 71-51. The Ti forces invaded Whitehall and dropped an 80-58 decision to the taller quintet. At Ausable Ti dropped its third game in a row 67-61.

The Sentinels rebounded with its second win of the year over Crown Point 61-50. Lake Placid outlasted the Sentinel Five with a 45-41 win on the Ti court. But the Sentinels repelled a Plattsburg invasion 67-56. Then they traveled to Port Henry where, in a close shave, Ti beat their old rivals 51-50.

Coach Stevenson's J. V. squad also sport a four and four record. After losing their their first three, the Junior Varsity boys capped four straight games, beating Ausable, Crown Point, Lake Placid and Plattsburg in close games. The Port Henry J. V. stopped the steak with a 44-35 score.
